The course is worth 8 ECTS (4 per term). 4 ECTS involve 100 hours of student work, 25 devoted to in-class sessions and the rest to individual work.

There are two types of in-class sessions:

- GGran (GG): these are devoted to the discussion of the grammar contents and to practice activities.
- GSeminar (GS): these are devoted to the improvement of the four basic skills.

Individual work will be devoted to:

- tasks proposed by the GG instructors
- tasks proposed by the GS instructors
- Self-study of English through additional materials

7. Avaluació i recuperació

- Exams: 50% of the mark, as follows:
 - o Final exam (June) that will assess the academic component ("theory") of the two terms (T2 and T3): 40% of the final mark. This exam must be passed.
 - o Language competence test (LCT). By the end of Idioma 5/6, students are expected to have a C1 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). Language competence will be assessed by means of a test or set of tests. The results for this test or set of tests will be worth 10% of the final mark only if a pass is obtained.
 - o IMPORTANT: Students must take and pass both exams.
- Continuous assessment: 50% of the mark, as follows:
 - o Grup Gran: 20% - class activities and mid-term quiz at the end of T2 (March)

Make-up tests ("recuperació"):

The final exam must be retaken in July [80% of the final mark].

The language competence tests must be retaken in July [20% of the final mark].

NOTES:

1. The course has a theory component and a practical component, each corresponding to one session per week. You may have a different instructor for the practical component than you do for the theory component. Class participation is required in order to follow the course adequately.

2. Failure to attend class on the days of in-class quizzes will result in a grade of 0 for that component. In general, no late work will be accepted for either the Grup Gran or the Grup de Seminari.

3. Students will get a "fail" in the term exams (no matter what the grade might be, based on content), if they contain ONE mistake of one of the following types:

- a) lack of agreement (between subject and verb, adjective and noun, determiner and noun, a pronoun and its referent, etc.)
- b) double subjects
- c) missing subjects

4. The requirement to sit the Language Competence Test (LCT) may be waived just in case a particular student has passed an official test of English which certifies at least a C1.2 level. The test must have been sat no earlier than one year prior to joining UPF's School of Translation. Students interested in the waiver must request it from their GG instructors before the LCT sittings (instructors will say how and when; no waiver requests will be accepted after the announced deadline) and provide an official certificate as proof. Only certificates issued by institutions recognized in UPF's rules and regulations concerning foreign-language credit transfer are accepted (see tables below).

The LCT grade for students who opt for a waiver will be either: (a) if the certificate provided by the student includes a grade, the LCT grade will be (approximately) equivalent to that grade; the grade cannot be lower than 6 on a 0-10 scale; (b) if the certificate provided by the student does not include a grade, the LCT grade will be a 6 on a 0-10 scale; students aiming at a higher grade should sit the LCT.
