

INTERNATIONAL ECONOMIC HISTORY (21317 – 21245)

WINTER 2015.

Professor: Enriqueta Camps

Office: 20.1E58 email: enriqueta.camps@upf.edu

Office hours: Wednesday 10-13 (you must email me before if you want to make use of the office hours)

Course in English: seminars' presentations and examination answers must be in English.

Readings: The readings of each class will be uploaded to the course website prior to meeting. Students are required to download and do the readings.

Grading policy:

1. Class participation (10%): Class discussion is an essential component of this tutorial. Be prepared to discuss the assigned readings in class.
2. Class Presentation (25%): Two students will jointly present one of the supplemental readings to be assigned latter in the seminar. The presentation should include both a summary and a critique of the paper. Further regulations on class presentations will be specified after the beginning of the course on the seminar's section of the course website.
3. Final exam (65%): Exam material will be based on the required readings and the lecture slides.

If the final grade is <5 the student has a second chance to pass the examination during the third term of the academic year. This examination is going to include all topics discussed during the course.
